Mission and Purpose Women's Resource Centres

- Increase the number of women participating in economic life on a national, regional and a local level
- Create new permanent jobs by developing women's business and enterprise –encouraging increased production of goods and services
- Increase women's influence within the labour market and society
- To support more equal distribution of economic resources between women and men for gender equal growth

Functions and approaches of WRC

- To empower women who seek support, they are not “taken care of” but rather get guidance towards self-help.
- Direct services to women including training, mentoring, enterprise support, education, finance etc
- To mediate contacts with women’s networks including Business & finance, enterprise authorities, international contacts, media etc
- Networking on different levels: national, local, regional and transnational to promote the combination of gender mainstreaming and positive actions

Handbook for Women's Resource Centres

Empowerment, the individual's own power, belief in knowledge, and the power to influence their own situation in society, are the key characteristics of the work that goes on in Resource Centres for Women.

The Handbook is designed to aid the establishment of Women's Resource Centres.

Use it! We wish you success!

- 1. Introduction*
- 2. Why and how WRCs can contribute to change*
- 3. WRC, the historical background and their role and mission today*
- 4. The work of a Women's Resource Centre*
- 5. Starting up, organising and guaranteeing sustainability in a Women's Resource Centre*
- 6. Working in project form*
- 7. Working methods and tools for use in a WRC*

The Handbook for Women's Resource Centres is published on the website www.winnet.se and www.winneteurope.org

The Handbook is produced by Winnet Sweden with support and funding from the Swedish Agency for Economic and Regional Growth – Tillväxtverket
